A few testimonials from previous participants:

"The true care and heart showed by you set the stage for a journey that could not happen otherwise. Any little glitches or nuances are completely meaningless when one travels with people like you. I cannot imagine better "leaders", and you have set the bar quite high for any further group adventures - no wonder you have so many repeat customers!!" - Oregon

"It was the best thing I have done for myself - EVER. I met so many nice people...your energy, wisdom, advice, knowledge and experience all combined to make it a very cool week in Santa Fe." - Washington, DC

"The two weeks we spent together on the Pilgrimage to the Sacred Andes are probably the most memorable so far in my long life. So many things...a compatible group; the rich spiritual experience we shared many times in many places; and the sense of being 'at home' at the navel of the universe!" - Texas

"Through the retreat I discovered that I could slow down, that I could open my heart more fully to the sacred within and in others. I brought home new ways to further deepen my capacity to be present to myself, others and the world. The experience was indescribable. I felt closer to the group of men than anyone ever before - a connected and supportive, nurturing spiritual bond that I will long remember. It was one of the most memorable & important things I've ever done." - Florida

Spirit Journeys offers opportunities for Gay Men and Lesbians, and our straight friends, to travel and vacation together exploring the world, or to gather together in retreat environments. Whether traveling or on a retreat, our aim is to offer a chance to "get away from it all" and at the same time to venture into the frontiers of spirit, self-awareness and personal growth.

Vacations or travel with others that carry similar intentions, provides a wonderfully deepened experience of the magical places we explore and the incredible people we meet along the way. This deepened experience increases your overall sense of enjoyment, recovery and rejuvenation; some of the reasons we take time away in the first place.

We offer four types of programs:
Workshops, Retreats, Journeys and Coaching.

Our Workshops usually have specific themes, such as Tantra, and occur over a long weekend.

The Retreats are typically five to seven days in length and are more eclectic in nature; combining things like Yoga, erotic exploration and healing, breathwork, sweat lodge, and a lot more. Whether held at a five star Wellness Center or in the rustic natural beauty of Belize, our retreats and workshops provide rest and relaxation, the chance to meet new people and grow new friendships, and also offer time for self-discovery and time to nourish your spirit.

Our Journeys are vacations, and more! Without a doubt, a Spirit Journeys' travel adventure has all the benefits of any vacation: escape from stresses at home, playing in beautiful surroundings, making new friends, sightseeing, relaxation and rejuvenation. However, we have the additional goal of sending you home with perhaps a new outlook on life and/or new tools to help you handle life's ups and downs.

Our intention is to maximize your overall travel or vacation experience by helping you to uncover the mystery and magnificence inside of you and of the world around you. Our Journeys do this by including personal interaction with indigenous people and cultures, working with local Shaman, learning and practicing ancient philosophies, and much more. Meditation, Heart Circles, ceremonies and rituals, or just wandering sacred sites in silence are also a few the many things we use as means of enhancing our Journeys.

Our Coaching provides an opportunity for "Spirit Journeers" to put into action the insights that may have been realized while attending a Spirit Journey. We also recognize that some people are not able to participate in our programs, yet desire support in heightening their spiritual awareness and personal growth. Spirit Journeys Coaching provides that support. Coaching brings the essence of what Spirit Journeys is all about, directly into your living room.
